In response to a statement by Ptn. Aloysius Habighorst that Clay Shaw once admitted he used the alias "Clay Bertrand," the New Orleans Police Department last week released records purportedly showing that Shaw signed an initial statement upon his arrest last year which carried the alias of "Clay Bertrand." Exhaustive checks of police records by newsmen not long after Shaw was booked on conspiracy charges in connection with the assassination of President Kennedy failed to turn up any mention of the name "Clay Bertrand."
